

For the prevention and cure BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than can be asserted of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstenate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.— To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Hysterical affections Gout in the stomach General weakness Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water, A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

100 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very pretty Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Nul-land, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave; small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and will with it; about 18 years of age, near middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 3 feet high from appearance.
She had on when she went away a dress of coarse cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown stuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, or Fairfax counties, or the District of Columbia, if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable expenses paid in either case. If brought home,

Daily Gazette 47—Country Gazette 45.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1818.

From the Baltimore Federal Gazette.

A NEW SONG—So old, yet new.

John Anderson, my jo John, how could ye be so rash, As to try to buy a Congress man, and not produce the cash?
Why offer sum sue small, John? your price was quite too low, Bid higher and wif' cash next time, John Anderson, my jo!

John Anderson, my jo John, ye now mann understand,
When wist ye deal wif' men o' law, ye tak' nae pen in hand.

These wha mak' mickle promises, like Congress men, I trow, Think they wha promise gie no good, John Anderson, my jo!

John Anderson, my jo John, though Congress mak' a rout; Debate, resolve, interrogate—they'll let ye safely out.

The crime o' tead'ring fees, John, will meet sic fate, ye'll know, As tead'ring lasses proovs o' love—John Anderson, my jo!

From the Boston Centinel.

Among other poetical productions in the English papers, on the death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, is the following, altered from one of Milton's on the Death of the Marchioness of Winchester.

AN EPIGRAPH

ON THE PRINCESS CHARLOTTE.
Summers three times seven and one,
She had told; alas! too soon, After so short a time of breath To house with darkness and with death:

Yet, had the number of her days Been as complete as was her praise, Nature and fate had had no strife In giving limit to her life.

Her high birth and her graces sweet, Quickly found a lover meet;
The virgin quite for her request To God that sits at marriage feast;

He, at their invoking came;
But with a scarce well lighted flame;
And in his garland as he stood, Ye might discern a cypress bud.

Once had the early matrons run To greet her of a lovely son;
But, whether by mischance or blame, Avaros for Luciva came;

And with remorseless cruelty Spoil'd, at once, both fruit and tree;
The hapless babe, before his birth Had burial, yet not laid in earth;

And the languish'd mother's woe Was not long a living tomb.

So have I seen some tender slip Sev'd with care from winter's nip, The pride of her carnation train Pluck'd up by some unheedy swain,

Who only thought to crop the flower New shot up from vernal shower;
But the fair blossom hangs the head Sideways, as on a dying bed,

And those pearls of dew she wears, Prove to be presaging tears,
Which the sad morn had let fall On her hastening funeral.

Gentle Lady, may thy grave Peace and quiet ever have;
After this, thy travail sore, Sweet rest seize thee evermore,

That, to give the world increase, Shorten'd hest thy own life's lease.
Here, besides the sorrowing That thy Royal House doth bring—

Here be tears of perfect woe, Wept for thee in Helicon;
And some flowers, and some bays For thy hea to strew thy ways.

MARRIAGE PORTIONS.

At the marriage of Monsieur, the Count d'Artois, the city of Paris, a-gred to distribute portions. A smart little girl, of 15, named Lise Noire, having presented herself to inscribe her name on the list, was asked who was her lover. "O!" said she, with great simplicity, "I have no lover; I thought the city furnished every thing." This answer created much mirth, and in the evening husband was found for her.

INGTON.

Thursday, January 15, 1818.

Notwithstanding an evident disinclination on the part of the house generally to kill any more time with the insinuating debate arising out of the case of Colonel John Anderson, it was renewed yesterday with undiminished earnestness. Mr. Claggett opened the field with a pretty long speech against the resolutions, and was followed by Mr. Whitman, who argued against the first resolution, (for the release of Anderson) and in favor of the second and third, which go to a prosecution at law, and the enacting of a law for the punishment of contempts. Mr. Ross then took up the argument, as may be conjectured, against the power of the house in constructive contempts, though he admitted it in express ones. Mr. Beecher, disclaiming all feeling for Anderson, spoke long and warmly in favor of the resolutions.—Mr. Spencer, Mr. Harrison, and Mr. Fayth, in a short but able speech followed.—In a word, the day was consumed in this way, though at every interval the question was importunately called for. It was about to be put, when Mr. Barwell expressing a wish to have the question so modified as to express a determinate opinion, the house adjourned to this day. Whether this spark let fall among the dry materials that remain unexhausted, will raise a conflagration or no, who can pretend to affirm?

From the Richmond Compiler, Jan. 13.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF VIRGINIA.

It is within the knowledge of every one, who has been in this city for the last week, that considerable sensation has been produced by the investigation before a joint committee of the two houses, of the truth of "numerous reports" impugning to the Directors of the Farmers' Bank mal-practices in the management of the funds thereof.—No subject has occurred for a long time past which was more calculated to produce feeling and discussion.—or which has actually produced more. The committee commenced their enquiries on Monday, the 5th instant—and continued them on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.—There was no quorum on Saturday—and yesterday the question assumed such an attitude as induced the committee to refer to the legislature for instruction.

The committee were empowered by the resolution to send for persons and papers to forward the proposed investigation. Several witnesses were accordingly summoned and attended.—Some of these were interrogated as to the fact, whether within the course of the last year any of the Directors had been guilty of usury or shaving? The enquiry, in this general shape, of course comprehended, not only the official conduct of the Directors, but their transactions in their private character.—The investigation proceeded in this way.—Two of the witnesses, whose evidence was most prominent, being specially requested by the President or some of the Directors to state all that they knew respecting their conduct—

On yesterday morning, however, Mr. Carter B. Page, after being duly sworn, refused to answer the question put to him—which led to the following report being submitted by Mr. Chamberlayne to the house of delegates. This report was read; and ordered to be printed.

The committee appointed on the part of the senate to act conjointly with a committee of the house of delegates, in examining into the state and condition of the Bank of Virginia and Farmers' Bank of Virginia, and charged, particularly, with the duty of investigating reports, impugning to the Directors of the latter Bank, mal practices, in the management of the funds thereof, and for that purpose, invested with the power of sending for persons and papers, not infringing any of the provisions of the charter of the said bank, have, according to order, had these subjects under consideration, &c. beg leave to report that they have summoned sundry witnesses to appear before the committee, and examined them, touching different charges allged against the Directors of the Farmers' Bank; that previous to the examination of each witness, the following oath was administered to him, by a magistrate of the city of Richmond:—"The evidence you shall give before this committee relating to the matters now before it, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth; so help you God."

That among various questions propounded to the witnesses, was the following:—"Do you know that any Director of the Farmers' Bank has, within the last year, been guilty of usury, or shaving?" That two of the witnesses, George Greenbow and James H. Lynch, at first objected to the propriety of the question aforesaid; but a majority of the committee having determined that such question was proper, they ultimately yielded their opposition, and consented to answer.—That Carter B. Page, another of the witnesses, having been called and sworn, and being required to answer the same question, replied as follows:—"As directors of the Farmers' Bank, I knew of no act of their's, having never been at their board, or seen their books."

I am advised that I am not bound to answer any questions which call upon me to disclose information touching any transaction in which I, myself, bore a part, and which may be held to violate any law of the land; that I am not bound in this place and manner, to disclose any part of my own transactions, business or affairs, that I am not bound to answer any questions which call for information concerning the private individual character, conduct, or transaction of any man whatever; that, in particular, I am not bound to answer any questions calling for information touching the Directors of the Farmers' Bank of Va. their transactions, or conduct in any other character or capacity than as directors of said bank; and I consider it my duty, as a citizen, to resist, by all lawful and proper means, any illegal or improper enquiry to which I may be called to answer; and therefore can give no further answer to the question.—Whereupon, the committee came to the following resolution:—"Resolved, That the joint committee do now rise, and report the foregoing facts, together with the charges and testimony, to their respective houses."

To the editor of the Charleston Courier.

St. Mary's, Jan. 3.
A Spanish officer arrived here this morning from St. Augustine, with dispatches to our commanding officer at Fernandina, to know if we had taken possession as friends or foes; and at the same time saying he was happy we had broke up that nest of thieves. Business is very brisk for the moment, on account of our navy and the fitting out of Aury's vessels. He says he would not remain at Amelia even if the United States were now to give it up.

With this you will receive a kind of vindication, addressed by commodore Aury to his legislative body, previous to the occupation of Amelia by the United States.

Fernandina, Dec. 12.

Communication from the commander in chief to the honorable Assembly of Representatives.

GENTLEMEN,
Some remarks having of late been made in the newspapers of the United States and the message of the President, tending to create suspicions on the legality of the first establishment formed in the Bay of Galveston, province of Texas—anxious to remove any doubt that might exist in the mind of the public relative to the authority under which I acted, and to prove that from its very commencement all my cares were directed towards aiding and sustaining the cause of the independence of Mexico, and not to serve my private views or interest, or those of any other, I have now the honor to lay before this honorable body the original documents concerning the same, and beg leave to state briefly the following facts, well known to all who were with me; some of whom are sitting in this assembly, who can correct me if I err:

After the evacuation of Carthage (S. A.) by the few Republicans, who preferred forcing their way through the Spanish fleet, or perish sword in hand, rather than surrender to general Morillo, I proceeded with the squadron under my command to the island of St. Domingo to obtain provisions. My brave followers seeing all hopes lost of rendering any assistance to the cause of New Granada, whose liberties were crushed in the fall of Carthage, now looked around whether to direct their steps to offer their services and to spill their blood in the cause of American independence and freedom. The Patriots under generals Cadenas and Gutierrez, who were at that time struggling for their rights in the province of Texas, attracted their attention, and it was determined that we should proceed as soon as possible to the Bay of Galveston, where we arrived with several prizes some time in July.—I immediately wrote to D. Manuel de Herrera, minister plenipotentiary of the republic of Mexico to the United States, then at New-Orleans, who answered me, and hailed my arrival as the means of accelerating the execution of plans for establishing forever the independence of Mexico. Mr. Herrera shortly after arrived, and at a meeting of the officers, to whom he exhibited his credentials from the congress of Mexico, an act of convention signed on the 12th of September, 1816, and Galveston was declared and acknowledged Puerto Habilitado of the republic of Mexico: I was appointed civil and military governor, and instructions were left me to be observed unless contrary orders were given by the congress itself, with whom I was to communicate monthly, or as often as I possibly could. Mr. Herrera, after having established the government, appointed a court of admiralty, named an administrator of public revenue, and collector of customs, &c. &c. and duly sworn all the officers, civil and military, sailed in the armed schooner General Morelos, captain Boguier, for Boquilla de Piedras, from whence he was to proceed to meet congress, report his proceedings, and concert plans for future operations. This vessel, a private armed one, was lost in the service of the republic. In the beginning of December I despatched the private armed schooner the Galveston, captain Salain, with colonel Garcia on board, with instructions to lay himself personally before the executive my transactions, and receive further instructions; also to report the arrival of general Mirra with several vessels, arms, ammunition, troops, &c. the distressed situation in which he was placed from want of funds, and that I would continue to supply him with what he might require as long as it lied in my power. This was effected, although at that time I had made considerable advances to the Mexican government. The Galveston conveyed a schooner with arms and ammunition, which I sent over, having contracted in the name of the government for the same, conformably to my instructions. These vessels found Boquilla de Piedras and all the coast in possession of the Royalists, thereby cutting off all communication between this new establishment and the other Mexican chiefs, with whom alone a correspondence could have been held, as the general congress had been dissolved some time before by general Teran, and the new one had not as yet met.

Captain Boguier, with the existing part of his crew, arrived at Galveston some time in January, from Nautla, taken by the Republicans under general Victoria, and gave information of the loss of Boquilla, where colonel Villapinto was killed, which occasioned his troops to disband, leaving captain Boguier with his crew to defend a small battery. Overpowered by numbers, wounded himself, his first officer killed, and thirty of his men either killed or wounded, he was compelled to retreat to the head quarters of general Victoria, who, upon his safe arrival, prepared an expedition against Nautla, that led into his hands. Upon this, a vessel was immediately sent to inform general Victoria of the situation of things, of the number of troops I had united together, &c. The place had once more fallen into the hand of the Royalists, who took two men and the captain, who had gone on shore in the boat. The vessel returned and gave general Mina and myself the disagreeable certainty that all hopes were lost of being able to communicate with the interior through this channel.—

The Bar of Galveston, during our stay, having proved extremely dangerous, and general Mina being ready and desirous to effect his landing, in order to penetrate into the interior of Mexico and commence operations, I determined upon abandoning this establishment and seek a more convenient place to answer the views and purposes of my government, and give all the aid and assistance I was able to the Patriots. I took on board of my vessel what troops and ammunition that could not be put on board the Cleopatra and Neptune, belonging to general Mina, and conveyed them to Soto in Nautla, where his landing was effected, and after seeing the disembarkment of all these arms, ammunitions, &c. proceeded again to Galveston to take with me several vessels that I had left behind, and repair to Matagorda, which, as reported by officers sent for the purpose of examining the harbor, was said to be far more advantageous than any other along this coast. On my arrival what was my astonishment to find the place very different from what I had been made to understand; for instead of 18 feet of water on the bar only 10 were found. Still considering that the present position might be advantageous, I remained until experience taught that this point offered no safety whatever as an entrap, even in the finest season of the year, for a north wind that blew a short time during the month of June drove 4 vessels on the bar, and the people on board the Champlain privateer were only saved by the wind's shifting of a sudden and driving those who had laid hold of parts of the wreck on the beach, where ten days previous to our arrival the cannibals had massacred the crew of a vessel cast away on the coast. Placed in this dilemma, having scarcely five weeks of provisions for those who were with me, the merchants in N. Orleans refusing to furnish any upon the credit of the government, destitute of funds even of my own, and hearing that general McGregor was to come to Amelia, I determined upon coming here, and in case he was not in possession, to take Fernandina with the forces under my command. On the passage I touched at Galveston to join other vessels that had sailed before me from Matagorda, to whom I intimated my intentions of abandoning that establishment, giving them orders to follow the division to Amelia. I wrote in consequence to commodore Patterson at New-Orleans, and to the collector of the custom house, giving them timely notice that any transactions in Galveston after the 31st of July were unauthorized by me. On my arrival gen. McGregor had abandoned the place attacked by the enemies, and the garrison harassed by fatigues, was on the point of evacuating, if some arrangements could not be made or any effectual measures taken. An agreement was entered into between the late governor Hidalgo, col. Irwin and his officers, and myself, under the express condition that the Mexican flag should fly, but authorized to host the same as a chief of the Mexican republic. This was effected.

What could have been my motives in coming to the Floridas? Those that always guided my conduct as a superior officer in the Mexican service. Unable to give any inequitable assistance to the other Republican chiefs, I came to assist General McGregor in liberating the Floridas, thereby drawing the attention of our common enemy, and attacking tyrant in his other possessions; convinced that the independence of the two Floridas once secured, forces could be raised which, united with those of the other chiefs, might strike a decisive blow to tyranny. My conduct since my arrival at Amelia, is so well known to you all, gentlemen, that it requires no mention to be made of it. I will only ask whether in any one single instance I have deviated from the principles which might ensure liberty to our oppressed brethren, and give success to Mexican Patriots, who, in spite of repeated disasters, still rise with redoubled enthusiasm in defence of their sacred rights.

I flatter myself, gentlemen, that in this narration of facts, and by the documents I have presented, I have proved beyond a doubt, that the establishment of Galveston was legally formed, and that all that was done by the existing authorities there, was not for private motives or views as said, but for the welfare and aiding by every possible means the patriots of the cause.

I submit the whole to your wisdom, for you in your prudence to determine what is most appropriate to be done under existing circumstances.—I have the honor to remain, hon. gentlemen, AURY.

From the National Intelligencer of January 14.

The following Message was yesterday transmitted by the President of the United States, to both Houses of Congress:—

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

I have the satisfaction to inform Congress that the establishment at Amelia Island has been suppressed, and without the effusion of blood. The papers which explain this transaction, I now lay before Congress.

By the suppression of this establishment, and of that at Galveston, which will soon follow, if it has not already ceased to exist, there is good cause to believe that the consummation of a project fraught with much injury to the United States has been prevented. When we consider the persons engaged in it, being adventurers from different countries, with very few, if any, of the native inhabitants of the Spanish Colonies—the territory on which the establishments were made—one, on a portion of that claimed by the United States, westward of the Mississippi, the other, on a part of East Florida, a province in negotiation between the United States and Spain—the claim of their leader, as announced by his proclamation, in taking possession of Amelia Island, comprising the whole of both the Floridas, without excepting that part of West Florida, which is incorporated into the state of Louisiana—their conduct while in the possession of the Island, making it instrumental to every species of contraband, and in regard to slaves of the most odious and dangerous character—it may fairly be concluded, that if the enterprise had succeeded on the scale on which it was formed, much annoyance and injury would have resulted from it to the U. States.

Other circumstances were thought to be no less deserving of attention.—The institution of a Government by foreign adventurers in the Island, distinct from the colonial Governments of Buenos Ayres, Venezuela, or Mexico, pretending to sovereignty, and exercising its highest offices, particularly in granting commissions to privateers, were acts which could not fail to draw after them the most serious consequences. It was the duty of the Executive, either to extend to this establishment all the advantages of that neutrality, which the United States had proclaimed, and have observed in favor of the colonies of Spain, who, by the strength of their own population and resources, had declared their independence, and were affording strong proof of their ability to maintain it, or to make the discrimination which circumstances required. Had the first course been pursued, we should not only have sanctioned all the unlawful claims and practices of that pretended government, in regard to the United States, but have countenanced a system of privateering in the Gulf of Mexico, and elsewhere, the effects of which might, and probably would, have been deeply and very extensively felt. The path of duty was plain from the commencement, but it was painful to enter upon it while the obligation could be resisted. The last of 1817, lately published, and which it is therefore proper now to mention, was considered applicable to the case from the moment that the proclamation of the chief of the enterprise was seen, and its obligation was daily increased by other considerations of high importance, already mentioned, which were deemed sufficiently strong in themselves to dictate the course which has been pursued.

Early intimations having been received of the dangerous purposes of these adventurers, timely precautions were taken, by the establishment of a force near the St. Mary's, to prevent their effect, or it is probable that it would have been more sensibly felt.

To such establishments, made so near to our settlements, in the expectation of deriving aid from them, it is particularly gratifying to find that very little encouragement was given.—The example conspicuously displayed by our fellow citizens, that their sympathies cannot be perverted to improper purposes, but that a love of country, the influence of moral principles, and a respect for the laws, are predominant with them, is a sure pledge that all the flattering anticipations, which have been formed of the success of our institutions, will be realized. This example has proved, that if our relations with foreign powers are to be changed, it must be done by the constituted authorities, who alone acting on high responsibility are competent to the purpose, and, until such change is thus made, that our fellow citizens will respect the existing relations, by a faithful adherence to the laws which secure them.

Believing that this enterprize, though undertaken by persons, some of whom may have held commissions from some of the colonies, was unauthorized by, and unknown to the colonial governments, full confidence is entertained that it will be disclaimed by them, and that effectual measures will be taken, to prevent the abuse of their authority, in all cases to the injury of the U. States.

For these injuries, especially those proceeding from Amelia Island, Spain would be responsible, if it was not manifest, that although committed in the latter instance through her territory, she was utterly unable to prevent them. Her territory however, ought not to be made instrumental, through her inability to defend it, to purposes so injurious to the United States. To a country, over which she fails to maintain her authority, and which she permits to be converted to the annoyance of her neighbors, her jurisdiction for the time necessarily ceases to exist.—The territory of Spain will nevertheless be respected, so far as it may be done, consistently with the essential interests and safety of the United States. In expelling these adventurers from these posts, it was not intended to make any conquest from Spain, or to injure in any degree the cause of the colonies. Care will be taken that no part of the territory contemplated by the law of 1811, shall be occupied by a foreign government of any kind, or that injuries of the nature of those complained of shall be repeated; but this is expected will be provided for, with every other interest, in a spirit of Amity, in the negotiation now depending with the Government of Spain.

To the Flour and Rice Millers OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN,—It appears that many have refused to pay for license to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in rice mills, waiting the decision of the United States' courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my license; there can exist no reason why some should pay and others be exempt. There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law, that each infringer is liable to pay treble my actual damages, which cannot be rated at less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greatest part of a long, arduous, and indefatigable life in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users, and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I had intended to apply to put others in operation which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant, to my great mortification and the public injury. I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor—the great expenses that I have incurred in advertising repeatedly over the United States, and in my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, and to instruct millwrights to make, and millers to use them. The law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration, and by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my license for the remainder of the term should be, the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only, with lawful interest until paid; but to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would, beginning with the year ending January 22, 1815, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum becoming due, and running on interest also; and so on, the 22d day of January in each and every year thereafter a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due, and runs on interest until license be purchased, demanding the interest only on all these sums, leaving the principal in the hands of the users; which is the least I can receive of them to meet the expenses which they have compelled me to incur. The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licenses, and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licenses may apply to John Love, Esq. Buckland, Prince William county; or to Capt. John Moody, Richmond, Va.

OLIVER EVANS.

NOTE.—Persons using Mr. Evans' improvements, or parts of them, unpaid for, will be sued if they do not discharge the claim on application. Mr. William H. Alexander has, under my authority from Mr. Evans, been empowered to receive payments and deliver licenses to use his improvements. Payments, therefore, made to him, John Moody, or myself, will alone be valid, and save the expense of suit and treble damages to the defendants.

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, about 2000 acres of land in Fairfax county, not more than from seven to nine miles from Alexandria. The property is well watered, has a sufficiency of small and well cultivated farms that adjoin it; it is highly susceptible of improvement.—It is at present divided into tenements, of from one to two hundred acres, each provided with a dwelling house, out houses, a garden and orchard; and might, of course, be laid out into four or five very compact farms. The principal object of the subscriber, being the introduction of a good system of husbandry into the neighborhood, he will sell on very moderate terms, give a long credit on the whole amount of the purchase money, and require no other interest, than what the present rent of the land pays, being about 5 per cent. on its estimated value.

Fire Insurance.
THE Columbian Insurance Company of Alexandria, continue to insure buildings, furniture, merchandise and other property, from loss by fire. The conditions and terms may be learned upon application at their office, next door to the City Hotel, and will be found as moderate and equitable as those of any other company.
The rates of premium are calculated in reference to the actual risk of property, and are as low as 25 cents per 100 dollars per annum for hazards of the best description, increasing proportionally for risks of a more hazardous nature. Insurances may be made for one or more years, or shorter periods.

Fifty Dollars Reward.
I WILL give the above reward for taking up and delivering to me in Alexandria, or lodging in jail so that I get him again, negro man WILLIAM, who stayed from Washington, D. C. (where he was hired) about 2 weeks ago. William is about 28 or 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, tolerably well made, yellow complexion, large mouth, very white teeth, and to the best of my recollection a scar on his right cheek—he is very fond of drink, and when intoxicated is a great repeater and excessively noisy. His clothing is not recollected, but as he received his wages before he started it is probable he has furnished himself with a new suit.
HENRY T. FENDALL.
December 9

Forty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY on the 21st ult from the service of Mr. Jesse Brown, of the City Hotel, SEER Y. (sometimes called herself Cecilia Green) the property of Mrs. Ann H. Lee, a pale mulatto woman, about 20 years old, of a middle stature, well formed, with small sunken eyes, and Indian hair. She probably has gone to Baltimore, or some of the northern cities, as it is supposed she was seen the next day on the road near Bladen-burgh, clad in a stuff dress and a cloak mantle, with a bundle of clothes in her hands. She may possibly be about the town, or in the District. Thirty dollars will be given for apprehending her, if taken within the District, or forty, if at a greater distance, and all reasonable charges defrayed. Enquire of ASHEL HOLBROOK.
December 15

Thirty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from my service, on the 10th inst. my mulatto house-servant GEORGE, between 15 and 19 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches, high, slender made, pug nose, bushy hair, half of one of his upper front teeth broken off —he is very artful and forward, and a capable house servant—he took with him a variety of clothing. I will give the above reward, if secured in any jail, so that I get him again, and will pay all reasonable charges if brought home. Masters of vessels and others are forewarned from employing or carrying off said servant at their peril.

James Kennedy & Son,
BOOKSELLERS.
KING STREET, ALEXANDRIA.
RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from Lee's Medicine Store,
No. 46, Maiden Lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDI-CINES:
Hamilton's Worm-destroying Len-gazes,
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various & dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or fulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or gripping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.
Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terres or large round worm; the Ascari-des or small pin-worm; the Cucurbi-tine or short fat white worm; and lastly, the Tenuis or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most harmful and most difficult to remove.
Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes leading food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fistul stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excosive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.
Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.
A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.
Children generally take this medicine with eagerness, having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended
to the inventor & feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern
and Middle States, &c.
The testimony of a number of persons
can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak
more in favour of a medicine than can-lous of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.
It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason to think that it will be a powerful remedy for biliousness, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
The operation of these pills is perfectly
sons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry
and thereby prevent colds which are so often the result of biliousness. A dose never fails to remove a cold taken on its first
moving habitual constiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-aches—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.
They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, cat-arrhs, and approaching consumptions—
To persons who have children afflicted
with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which
children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small
that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable me-
ent cure of

in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one
a week old, not containing a particle of
tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable
throughout Europe, is an invaluable cos-
from corrosive and repellent minerals,
the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes
of the face and skin, freckles, pimples,
inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, scabs, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of excess weakness or of accident.
